Back to basics

This autumn, Meraki proves that skin care for your entire family is not boring and ineffective. Luxurious textures and proven ingredients come together in the Pure Basic range that caters to mom, dad, kid, nan and everyone in between.

Cut back on products and all the overwhelming fragrances coming from your hair care, skin care and makeup. Perfume-free and certified organic, Pure Basic is for everyone. Simple as that.

Soft terry towels in army green and sand extend your self care routine and grounds your bathroom with relaxing colours. Available in stripes or solid, they instantly update the look and feel of your space.
